

All the Faces

We celebrate longevity and all the years of change. This City, beginning to mirror the world, welcomes a wealth of difference.

Same but different.
Time has given us the distance to look back and dive into the depth of understanding.

Having evolved into this portrait, the city has become a tapestry of people and place running a race against misunderstanding.

Handling the nuance of Home, comfort and culture with, a thousand new beginnings, a thousand moments, a thousand conversations about belonging.

Generations of immigrants have walked la ciudad de Cathedral to reinvent its language, to reinterpret legacy, leaving familiarity for the promise of a future. Waves of hope have washed into this chapter of history Salisbury, Odstock, a leap from '43 to the present, we honour all the faces of this city's history.
